

Imperial Sir Ed Stolze

At the 2023 Imperial Shrine, Imperial Sir Ed Stolze was elected as the 2023-2024 Imperial Potentate. Congratulations Imperial Sir Ed. May the Supreme Being guide your every thoughts and actions during your year. Congratulations to the rest of the Imperial Divan.

New Imperial Outer Guard

IS David Hamm was elected as the new Imperial Outer Guard. Congratulations!

2023 Summer PNSA

The Divan and some members of Afifi Shrine met on the last weekend of July in Spokane, WA for the 2023 Summer PNSA. It was a week of fun, learning, and good fellowship. We have to recognize Noble Shane Inman elected to the PNSA Legion of Honor as 1st Lt. Commander. Congratulations! We all visited downtown Couer D'Alene, Idaho.

We participated in the PNSA Stampede Rodeo as a team. We held on the 1st position. We might be in second or third place by the end of the Rodeo. Ms Meghan Johnson, daughter of IS Rory Johnson, PP, participated in the Clown Competition. Several of us became Entered Apprentices Hillbillies. The ladies had their own degree. Many of us enjoyed the Ghost Tour of Spokane. It was very interesting. We visited Shiner's Children in Spokane.

Our gratitude and congratulations for job well done to our host El Katif Shrine. All y'all done a great job and the hospitality you showered us with was excellent. This is what Shriners are and do. You guys rock. Due to space, pictures on this page and the next page are of our trip to Summer PNSA. For more pictures, see our Facebook group.

Unity March

Sunday, August 6 3:30 PM

Dupont, WA

Every year in early August, Masons from both the Grand Lodge of Washington and the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Washington and Jurisdiction gather together in Dupont and march together dressed in masonic regalia from a nearby park to the Dupont Community Presbyterian Church to attend a joint church service. The service is attended by Brothers and Sisters from the different Concordant Masonic Bodies and is open to family and friends. After the service, there is a pot luck dinner in the park behind the church where attendees can enjoy the ties of family and friendship with one another.

We need Shriners to attend with their fez and assist with the van and other issues at the March.

The Potentate's Message

IS Don Varo - Potentate 2023

Well Nobles

Seven months have come and gone. However, it was seven months of Fun and Fellowship. We still have five more months to go as your Potentate,

I attended the 2023 Imperial Session. There were a lots of things talked about. Many resolutions discussed and voted upon. Some passed , others did not. One resolution which passed, after several amendments were presented, was the increase to our PerCapita of $20.00. No increase of our Hospital PerCapita. It remained at $5.00.

We have participated in three parades since our last Fez issue. I was hoping to see more Shriners in our parades, but to the one that showed up a very big thank you. Our last parade is the Morton parade on August 12th. After the parade, we will meet at IS Ryan Wright's (PP) house for some food, fun and fellowship.

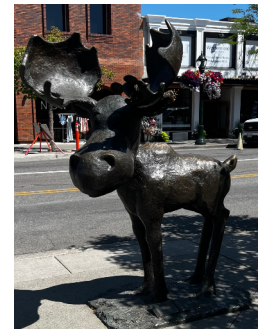

One item that is very important is our participation at the UNITY March on Sunday, August 6th in DuPont (120 Barksdale Ave, DuPont, WA) at 3:30 PM. We will assemble at Iafrazi Park at 3:30 PM. After which, we march towards Community Presbyterian Church of Dupont (502 Barksdale Ave., DuPont). After the church services, we join all in a picnic in Sellers Park (behind the Church). Please come and join us with your fez to show that we care about Unity and our Fraternity.

All the Clubs and units have been working. I have been to most of their board meetings and dinner meetings. Remember it is all our job to make AFIFI grow, so replace yourself with a mason. If you do that, we can double our membership.

It is our Temple, so Get to work and help us grow, we need your help.

NONE

Sickness & Distress

Nobles, let us keep in our prayers for their recovery and health the following Nobles and family members. Our love and thoughts are with them.

Noble Robert Royal

What is the member card QR code?

I get asked a lot about member card stickers. We no longer use the stickers to indicate the last year your dues were paid.

On your membership card is a QR code. That code is read by an "authorized" cellphone camera, which reports whether that card holder is up-to-date with their dues. Every Shrine Center should be able to scan your card.

We are now prorating our initiation fees based on time of year. Here are the initiation fees for candidates based on when they plan on getting initiated:

- January thru March—$186.00
- April thru June—$154.40
- July thru September—$123.50
- October—$92.60
- November - $46.83
- December—$26.00

Info on Life Memberships

Your dues payment consists of three elements: Temple dues ($125), Shriners International Per Capita fee ($30), and Shriners Children's Hospital Assessment ($5). Therefore, there are three Shrine Life Memberships, one for each. You can purchase one, two or all three. Here are the current costs to purchase a life membership:

Temple
(65 years old or over)
$1,250

Temple
(under 65)
$2,500

Per Capita
$900

Hospital Assessment
$150

STAND UP TO JEWISH HATE

Ray Zimmerman, PP

Sadly, our IS Dale Vrsalovich did not win the election as Imperial Outer Guard at the annual Imperial Session in Charleston, SC. It's a very strange attitude among many of the delegates that a noble must try twice before they will take him seriously. He intends to run again next year, so wish him luck.

At the Imperial Session, it was approved to increase our Per Capita from $30 to $50 (a $20 increase). I know for some of you, that might prove a hardship. If so, let me know and we will see what we can do. IS Dale reminded me that Imperial does not charge the members with the Per Capita or Hospital Assessment, they charge the Temples. Since most temples are not sitting on a large pile of cash, they ask Imperial to bill them directly. Just one more reason to find a successful fundraising venture that might allow us to reduce the dues on our members.

The attendance at our Stated meetings have been disappointing to say the least. I realize discussing Temple business can be boring, but it is crucial that we get your input. Please make every effort to attend our State meeting on September 9th at the Tacoma Scottish Rite Center.

Fraternal Greetings Nobles:

First, I want to thank those that made our third Panda Express Fundraiser a success. Our next online fundraiser will be Friday, August 4, 2023. See our flyer in The Fez for information. Please send this information to your families and friends (including Freemasons) to order on line with the code 194203. If we get orders done online with Panda Express that is over $150 in total sales, we will have 28% of the sales deposited in our bank account. No expenses are incurred. Have faith! Your assistance of giving this fundraiser a lift, even if you don't like Chinese food, helps us secure funds for our Temple. We continue with our Nobility Leadership Training (NLT). In this issue, we continue expanding on the topic leadership. I submitted the 2024 budget and next year's plan to our Divan for discussion. The theme for next year is "This is the Way". The theme is for us as a Shrine to ponder on. Taking a deep look at who we are as Afifi Shriners, the current circumstances we operate under, our commitment to the Temple, and our future. This brings me to a concept of an organization I remember in Industrial Psychology 401.

All organizations exist because of people that have a common interest. This what we call our prime objective/ While operating under that prime objective, people may organize in subgroups with a particular interest that assist with the prime objective of the organization. These subgroups can be organize due to geographical location, hobbies, learning, etc. This takes us to the basic principle of any organization.

Even though they are working in subgroups, the subgroups don't make or break an organization. It is people that joined the organization as they like or believe in the prime objective or common interest of that group. It's this sentiment that binds us an organization and with the other members of the group. Subgroups are incidental to an organization. Their importance is what they can contribute to the organization. If a subgroup becomes extinct, it doesn't eliminate the organization as a whole. It might hurt in regards to membership as some might think they no longer believe in the prime objective of the group.

Now if the organization, as a whole, decides to cease its existence, the subgroups will cease to exist. Why? Because our prime objective that was our bound, as a group, was dissolved. In principle, the group gives birth to the subgroups but the subgroups aren't the creators of the group or organization. What binds us together as a group is what makes the organization/group. We will continue with this conversation to further clarify next year's theme.

Nobility Leadership Training

What is Leadership? Part 2

This “servant leadership” approach to leadership is far more effective. While the dynamics are complex, countless studies show empirical links among effective leadership, people satisfaction, people loyalty, and profitability. Empowering people within an organization, surprisingly enough, might mean taking a more hands-on leadership approach. Organizations whose leaders successfully empower others through coaching are nearly four times more likely to make swift, good decisions and outperform other organizations. But this type of coaching isn’t always natural for those with a more controlling or autocratic style.

Here are five tips to get started if you’re a leader looking to empower others:

1. Provide clear rules, for example, by providing guardrails for what success looks like and communicating who makes which decisions. Clarity and boundary structures like role remits and responsibilities help to contain any anxiety associated with work and help teams stay focused on their primary tasks.
2. Establish clear roles, say, by assigning one person the authority to make certain decisions.
3. Avoid being a complicit manager—for instance, if you’ve delegated a decision to a team, don’t step in and solve the problem for them.
4. Address culture and skills, for instance, by helping employees learn how to have difficult conversations.
5. Begin soliciting personal feedback from others, at all levels of your organization, on how you are experienced as a leader.

How can leaders communicate effectively?

Good, clear communication is a leadership hallmark. Fundamental tools of effective communication include:

- defining and pointing to long-term goals
- listening to and understanding stakeholders
- creating openings for dialogue
- communicating proactively

And in times of uncertainty, these things are important for crisis communicators:

- give people what they need, when they need it
- communicate clearly, simply, and frequently
- choose candor over charisma
- revitalize a spirit of resilience
- distill meaning from chaos
- support people, teams, and organizations to build the capability for self-sufficiency

Leadership Development

When it comes to leadership within organizations, this is often referred to as leadership development. Programs, books, and courses on leadership development abound, but results vary. Leadership development efforts fail for a variety of reasons. Some overlook context; in those cases, asking a simple question (e.g., something like “What, precisely, is this program for?”) can help. Others separate reflections on leadership from real work, or they shortchange the role of adjusting leaders’ mindsets, feelings, assumptions, and beliefs, or they fail to measure results.

So what’s needed for successful leadership development?

Generally, developing leaders is about creating contexts where there is sufficient psychological safety in combination with enough novelty and unfamiliarity to cultivate new leadership practices in response to stimuli. Leadership programs that successfully cultivate leaders are also built around “placescapes”—these are novel experiences, like exploring wilderness trails, practicing performing arts, or writing poetry.

When crafting a leadership development program, there are six ingredients to incorporate that lead to true organizational impact:

•Set up for success:

- Focus your leadership transformation on driving strategic objectives and initiatives.
- Commit the people and resources needed.

•Be clear about focus:

- Engage a critical mass of leaders to reach a tipping point for sustained impact.
- Zero in on the leadership shifts that drive the greatest value.

•Execute well:

- Architect experiential journeys to maximize shifts in mindsets, capabilities, and practices.
- Measure for holistic impact.

A well-designed and executed leadership development program can help organizations build leaders’ capabilities broadly, at scale. And these programs can be built around coaching, mentoring, and having people try to solve challenging problems—learning skills by applying them in real time to real work.

What are mentorship, sponsorship, and apprenticeship?

Mentorship, sponsorship, and apprenticeship can also be part of leadership development efforts. What are they?

Mentorship refers to trusted counselors offering guidance and support on various professional issues, such as career progression.

Sponsorship is used to describe senior leaders who create opportunities to help junior colleagues succeed. These roles are typically held by more senior colleagues, whereas apprenticeship could be more distributed.

Apprenticeship describes the way any colleague with domain expertise might teach others, model behaviors, or transfer skills.

These approaches can be useful not only for developing leaders but also for helping your company upskill or reskill employees quickly and at scale.
